Out of a living stone
Art wants on earth my lady's face to live
All years. What should God say,
If I can claim but this, and He made her,
Divine, not mortal, for all eyes to see?
And yet it fades — forever cannot be.
Oh, luck is lame, if stone
Can live, and she must die!
Who will avenge her, then? Nature alone,
If the work of its children can survive,
While its own work is soon erased by time.

Michelangelo Buonarroti (1475-1564)

from Their Royal Majesties

Greetings Gracious Outlanders

We hope that your summer has so far been a wonderful excess of fun, fighting and feasting with friends. We have over the course of this reign enjoyed the hospitality of Our neighboring Kingdoms and Principalities but none exceed Our very own generous and gregarious Outlandish Baronies and Shires. Thank you so much for the amazing events you have all created! We have enjoyed ourselves immensely in a most welcoming space everywhere we have traveled, you are an extraordinary Kingdom and we are honored to be your Crown.

The compassion you have shown for all those who are fighting very real wars against time and nature this summer is overwhelming. The firefighters and volunteer organizations that support them are most appreciative of your kindness and your awareness. Thank you for caring for these lands as though they were you very own. The Kingdom's support of Her Majesty and many others who are under siege by the fires that abound in Our Kingdom is astonishing. Thank you so very much for showing Us the true meaning of friendship.

Pensic War is nearly upon us but before We lay waste to Our foes on those far shores We will be attending the fun and frivolous Baron's War, bring your colors and banners and join Us in the uprising of the landless masses. We will then show Our stalwart state to the Known World at Pensic, We look forward with great anticipation to the glorious presence of the Outlands and the amusing havoc We will wreak upon those shores! Homeward bound We will find Ourselves in sunlit Fields of Gold in Our respected Barony of Caerthe and from there travel onward to the glorious moonlight of the Silver Pass.

We have learned so very much while serving as your Crown. The people of the Outlands are a proud and passionate diverse tribe with ideals and dreams that exist no where else in such abundance. We charge you as your crown never to relinquish those goals for chivalry, courtesy and grace, to strive always and in all things to bring those ideals of perfection to life both here in our current middle ages and in the world that surrounds us. Continue to teach Us what it means to be a part of such a worthy and honorable endeavor.

We also charge all those who intend to fight to achieve the crown at Our fall crown tournament to get their letters of intent to us by August 16th.

In service to the realm and it's wondrous people
We remain your Outlandish Crown

Heavy combat will consist of melees in the morning between the armies of the Landed Nobles and the hastily raised armies of the presumptuous Other Nobles. A single sword pas in the German style will be held in the afternoon. That night will be a torchlight tournament held Viking style on a bear skin rug with Great Axe.

Rapier combatants shall be charged with carrying the favor of a Baron or Baroness (of any ilk). Melees will ensue with a tournament in the afternoon. An archery shoot will be provided and a competition as well.

Baca Camp Site is on the left. Signs will be posted on US 380 and Rte 57.

In the 16th Century, the Spanish explorers named many sites in the Outlands. One of these is the Capitan Mountains. Come and help us celebrate the coming of these early caballeros (knights) with tourneys and fan for all. Heavy Weapons tourneys of both the squared circle and melee will get your blood running. Light weapons will have many acres to celebrate their duels. Archers will vie for the right to kiss their love under the mistletoe.

COMBAT ARCHERS will have their own tourney of Archer vs Archer in scouting and in Agincourt style combat. Combat Archers must meet minimum armor requirements for heavy combat and fencing rules will apply in judging hits. Also, Combat Archers may present experimental weapons and arrows which, if deemed safe and accepted by marshals, chiurgeons, and fellow archers, may be used on the field.

The only structures on site are the necessaries. No showers. During normal weather, a spring brings water to the site but this is dry during droughts. Bring water, fire extinguishers and shovels. Fire restrictions posted for the Lincoln National Forest will be strictly enforced. Roads to and from the site are all-weather surfaced. The site is shaded and has many acres of land for activities. A Saturday night bardic will entertain all.

From the Kingdom Waterbearer

Cooling breezes and soft rain to you all, gentle folk of the Outlands. This month, my tidings are of good news, a change, and a request.

The good news is that I now have a Northern regional deputy, Mistress Rowen from Caer Galen, who will be working to coordinate and organize waterbearers. As such, she will be finding out who has equipment, and who needs to use equipment (autocrats, take note!). I will be attempting the same in the southern regions, unless/until I find a Southern deputy.

The change is that my lord husband and I have recently moved. Our new contact information should be on the inside of the front cover.

Finally, the request is to reiterate the cover of a recent OH... if you've ever said, "I could do that!" I'd love to show you how. I am seeking a drop-dead deputy to co-coordinate Outlands waterbearing efforts at Estrella, with the eventual goal of taking over this position. Previous waterbearing experience preferred. (And if you've never done any, this hot and dry summer is the perfect time to pick up a jug, no matter who you are or where your interest lie.)

in service to the Outlands, I remain, Alia

Come one, come all, the day is fast approaching for our shire to find a new defender. We are the only shire to have a rapier fighter as defender and it is time to find our champion from within the Outlands. Currently our defender is from a kingdom to the north; rise up to the challenge and uphold the honor of the Stag. We also will find a new champion to be named Defender of the Silver Pass from among the heavy weapons fighters. In addition to the tournaments we will have and archery competition, thrown weapons, and melees for lights and heavies.

For the non-combatants, we have an A&S open competition, rolling pin toss, children's activities, and the ever popular tavern. If you haven't seen this tavern, you will be in for a treat. It holds a brewing competition, drumming competition, and dancing contest. All brewers/vintners are encouraged to enter and to share their talents. We always have a bardic contest and a desert competition for all to enjoy. This year should be even better, there is NO curfew at our new site, yes, that's right, NO curfew. We can drum and revel 'til we're ready to quit.

We have a new site and it boasts a huge open field for a town square, open field fighting with maybe a castle to defend, merchants row for your shopping pleasure, archery range, and room to relax and enjoy the last days of summer. There is also lots of camping in the open for those with large pavilions and room to set up in the trees for your privacy needs. We just ask you to bring all the water you need and some to share as no well has been found. Due to drought, no open fires will be permitted. Merchants please pre-register.

Veni, Vidi, Vici.

From the Editor of Tournaments Illuminated

Have you ever written an article for Tournaments Illuminated? If so, would you like to see your article made available online?

We often hear "Can't you put the old TIs online?" But it's not as easy as just scanning in all the old issues and linking them up. Every author who has ever written for TI has retained copyright to his or her article, and we wouldn't have it any other way. But the Internet is a relatively recent phenomenon, and hence, presents us with a dilemma.

We would love to be able to give our readers online access to the wonderful articles our authors have written over the years, and have space on the sca.org servers to house these articles. But our publication release form only began to allow authors to grant explicit permission for electronic publication in Summer 2001. If your article was published before that date, we need your permission in writing to allow us to place it online.

If you are interested in helping out, please visit www.sca.org/ti, fill out a release form, and send it in. If you have your article available in electronic format, we would love it if you could send us a copy, either along with your permission form or as an e-mail attachment to the editor's e-mail address. If you do not, do not despair — we will find a way to turn your old article into a web page.

Already have your article online? If you already have an online version of your article available (on a personal website or elsewhere), just e-mail the link to tieditor@sca.org, and we'll link it up to our online index of past articles.

Thanks for your help!

From the Kingdom Scribe

Outlandish Greetings to all who come by these letters,

I hope everyone is enjoying the fine summer events. The scribes are hard at work on current awards scrolls and tackling the backlog in between current assignments. At this writing all outstanding backscrolls (60 that we knew of) from the reign of Kynan & Eleanor II are assigned and mostly completed. Backscrolls from the reigns of Ceasan & Vanna and Kynan &
Eleanor I are in the process of assignment and production. If you are missing a scroll from any of these reigns (or any Outlands reign) please contact me. If you have already contacted me but have not heard from me recently, please feel free to contact me again :-)

In attempting to get signatures from past Crowns on these back scrolls we found that due to the large volume in process, some scrolls are suffering wear and tear, some are getting lost, and others are getting signed by the wrong Crown. With the camping season upon us the likelihood of scrolls getting the worst for wear increases. Therefore we will make every effort to get your backscroll directly to you and ask that you take responsibility for obtaining the signatures of the appropriate Crown. It is very likely that they will be at an event near you sometime this season. Asking anyone else to carry your scroll to an event to obtain the signature or asking the current Crown to do so has not worked well and only puts the scroll back in the cycle (usually back to me) and subject to more wear and tear. We beg your indulgence and understanding in asking you to take on this responsibility for your scroll. Our resources are very limited at this time and must be used wisely.

We are always looking for newcomers to the scribal arts. If you've ever been interested in calligraphy and/or illumination, please contact me or anyone in the Scribes Office. We'd be delighted to help you get started or put you in contact with someone near you who can assist you.

In service,
Maria www.scribesweb.net

Sponsorship.

You or your Shire/Barony/College/Canton can now support the Kingdom of the Outlands by sponsoring pages in the Outlandish Herald.

You or your group can sponsor one or more pages - depending on how much they want to spend.

To sponsor one page it is only 10.00 dollars. The cover alone - the whole front and back, 4 pages in all - is just 40.00 dollars. If you or your group wants to sponsor the whole O.H. it is 10.00 dollars per page. For instance, a 32 page O.H. would be 320.00 dollars

The pages will have a statement such as:
This page sponsored by: a stag argent, attired and unguled, College-Canton-Shire-Barony of - location - Kingdom of the Outlands.

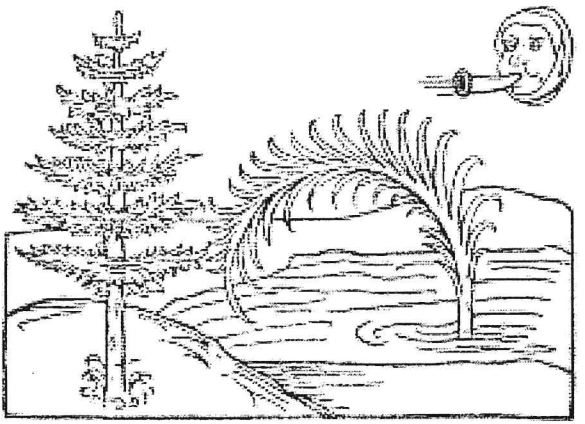
And groups - people will be recognized. It is advertising without the merchandise. It is Sponsorship. And it's a Fundraiser!

And hey, if the Incipient College of Rams Keep provides the cover art? Then an artist will be recognized too!

Please make checks payable to SCA-Outlandish Herald and send them to the Kingdom Chronicler

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.
Lady Christina McCarty
Kingdom Chronicler of the Outlands

The Tree & the Reed



Once, when a tree had been badly damaged by the wind, it noticed that the reed had not been hurt at all. The tree said to the reed, "I am strong and thick, you are thin and weak. Why does the wind injure me and not you?" The reed answered, "I know how weak I am, so when the wind blows I bend along with it and I don't feel the full force of it. But you rely on your strength and you fight the wind - that's why you get broken."
Moral: Judge your own strength and act accordingly. AESOP

Contact Information' for other coordinators as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
